What are you passionate about or enjoy doing that you can monetize? Monetize is THE key word. Think about whether or not you can get others to pay you for this passion quickly with little effort on your part.

Now. Ask at least two people in your life what they think you are really good at.

Record your findings in the box below.

Now, based on your responses, ask yourself if there are any repetitive themes. Did anything come up more than once? Identify up to 5 possible side hustle revenue ideas based on the findings from your discovery process. Then identify a possible client for each. Lastly, determine your next action item to put the side hustle into motion.
